ADVANT Beiten Strengthens Brussels Office: Gábor Báthory Joins as Salary Partner for EU Trade and Competition Law

Brussels, 4 March 2022 - The international law firm ADVANT Beiten strengthens its Brussels office and welcomes Gábor Báthory as Salary Partner.

Gábor Báthory has extensive experience in advising international clients and strengthens the valuable cross-border expertise of ADVANT Beiten. Dr. Dietmar O. Reich, Head of the Brussels office, comments: "We are delighted to welcome an extraordinarily experienced colleague in Brussels!"

Gábor Báthory advises in particular on EU internal market law, EU and international trade law and EU competition law. He has wide-ranging experience in assisting clients in litigation before the EU Courts and in representing clients before EU institutions. He regularly represents large companies in the retail, chemical, aviation and automotive industries. Mr Báthory also has more than 10 years of experience in EU trade law. His expertise includes assisting clients regarding regulatory investigations and represents them before the European Commission and the EU Courts, as well as in customs matters involving national customs authorities and OLAF.

The lawyers in ADVANT Beiten's Brussels office have advised clients in European law matters over three decades. In particular, our experts advise on cartels and merger control, joint ventures and public procurement procedures across borders. We counsel clients from a wide range of industries, including automotive, steel, chemical, pharmaceutical and food, as well as energy, environment and waste management, research and development, aviation, transport, media and sports.
